I visited my friend, Meg, in China during winter vacation. She has lived there for two years and teaches English at junior high school. On December 31, I arrived in China in the morning. Meg and I went to a concert in the evening. Many singers sang songs, and we enjoyed them very much. The concert finished at nine. The next day, we visited a famous museum. We can take pictures in the museum. So I took many pictures. There is a beautiful garden, and we had a good time. Then we talked a lot at Meg's house. Meg had to go to work on January 2, so I came back to Japan on that day.

Meg told me people had two kinds of New Year's Day in China. One is January 1 and the other is Chinese New Year's Day. It is February 5 this year. Meg's students go to school on January 2, but they have vacation for three weeks in February. It is very interesting.
